Getting Started

Consider the following questions as you explore options for making the most out of designated volunteer days:

- Organizations' goal or vision for the volunteer experience
- Number of employees participating (individual, one or more teams, all staff, etc.)
- Team composition (senior leadership team, specific division, employee-led, etc.)
- Virtual, hybrid or in-person volunteering (TBC)
- Date(s) and/or non-date specific opportunities
- Particular health charities or causes that interest your team the most
